

Low Income Wood Heating Exemption

Application for the 2016-2017 Heating Season

Spokane Regional Clean Air Agency (Spokane Clean Air) may provide exemptions which allow residents to use solid fuel burning devices (e.g., wood stoves, pellet stoves and fireplace inserts) during burn bans pursuant to Spokane Clean Air Regulation I, Article VIII, Section 8.08.A. A wood heating exemption for low income residents is available if there is an economic need to burn solid fuel during a declared burn ban for residential heating purposes only.

Complete and Submit this Application to Spokane Clean Air

Please provide the information requested on page 2. To submit your completed application, or if you have any questions, you can contact Spokane Clean Air in any one of the following ways:

Web: www.SpokaneCleanAir.org

Phone: 509-477-4727

Mail: Spokane Regional Clean Air Agency
3104 E. Augusta Avenue
Spokane, WA 99207-5384

Spokane Clean Air works with the Spokane Neighborhood Action Partners (SNAP) to verify low income exemption requests. Upon receiving your application, Spokane Clean Air will submit it to SNAP for income verification.

Approval or Denial

You will receive written notification from Spokane Clean Air indicating whether your application has been approved or denied. An approved exemption means you are exempt from Spokane Clean Air's solid fuel burning device burn bans for the duration stated on your approval notice. Even if Spokane Clean Air approves your application, you must still burn cleanly and smoke from your chimney must be nearly invisible (must be less than 20% opacity per Washington Administrative Code 173-433-110).

Other Items to Note

- You need to reapply and qualify for exemptions annually.
- Application fees for Low Income Wood Heating Exemptions are waived.
